

Fatherhood Facts: A True/False Quiz

- T F 1. Most unwed fathers are present at the birth of their child.
- T F 2. At the time of the birth, most unwed mothers say that they want the father to be involved in their child's life.
- T F 3. Most men who father children outside of marriage don't spend time with their children.
- T F 4. Most fathers who live apart from their children are able to provide financial support, but are unwilling to do so.
- T F 5. There is very little evidence to suggest that father involvement benefits children.
- T F 6. Fathers who are underemployed are more likely than fully employed fathers to limit their involvement with their children.
- T F 7. At the time of the birth, most unwed fathers are not involved with the mother of their newborn and are not interested in the child.
- T F 8. Research shows that the most important activity fathers can do for their children's well-being is to support them financially.
- T F 9. Many low-income fathers financially support their children.
- T F 10. Many low-income mothers with young children do not value fathers' caregiving and economic providing.

Answer Key:

1. T
2. T
3. F
4. F
5. F
6. F
7. F
8. F
9. T
10. F

Revised 09.25.05